

VIRES Simulationstechnologie GmbH provides software solutions for creation, animation, visualization and sensor perception of virtual environments for ADAS and active safety systems. We support our customers in the automotive and rail sectors in their efforts to shape the future of mobility. VIRES is a member of MSC.Software Group of companies and is owned by Hexagon, a leading global provider of information technology solutions. The head office of VIRES is located in Bad Aibling, Germany.

We are a growing company and for our office in Bad Aibling (GER) or Wiener Neustadt (A) we have open positions for

Software Developer (f/m)

Your tasks

- You will develop and maintain our software for sensor, traffic or camera simulation depending on your qualification.
- You will identify, describe and review requirements and work independently on your projects.
- You will support our customers to integrate and use our software.

Your qualification, knowledge and experience

- Bachelor or Master in computer science or engineering
- Very good development skills with C++ or any other high-level programming language
- A good knowledge of Open GL, GPGPU programming and Ray tracing is optional
- Experience with Linux operating system
- Analytical thinking, combined with the ability to structure complex subject areas
- Good German and English language skills

We offer

- Flat hierarchy and fast decision making
- Interesting and challenging tasks
- Flexible working hours
- Good working atmosphere in an international and creative team

The position offers a gross annual salary of € 33,600 based on full-time employment. With appropriate qualifications and work experience, there is willingness to overpay.

Are you interested in being a part of shaping the world of autonomous driving?

Please send an email with your job application, your salary expectation requirement and the earliest possible start date to: recruiting@vires.com.